PROSPECTUS

The Company has been formed for the purpose of supplying the demand for the transport of Passengers and Goods between various towns in the Mofussil and also to connect certain towns with the nearest Railway Stations.

It is generally recognised that the demand for Motor transport by means of petrol vehicles is on the increase and this is the natural outcome of the progress and development which is so marked in India at the present time.

The people of India are advancing in every possible direction and with this advancement the demand for facilities of travel will necessarily become most urgent.

It is a matter of common knowledge that the Indian Railways do not touch a vast number of very important commercial centres and even in these days there are many manufacturing towns in India from which the only means of egress is by Tonga or Bullock Cart, and frequently a journey to the nearest Railhead occupies two or three days by these out-of-date methods of locomotion.

The Agents of the Company have made investigations at various places where the demand for Motor transport service seems most urgent and where there is the most favourable opening for such services to be run on sound profit-earning lines.

The Company has several suitable service routes in view but at the outset, operations will be confined to a Passenger and Goods service in Central India, Berars and Central Provinces where there are excellent roads passing through populous districts and where there is also every prospect of securing transport contracts from several local industrial concerns.

It is proposed to maintain a regular passenger and goods service at these places and suitable motor lorries fitted with special bodies each capable of accommodating 30 or more passengers will be used. Smaller vehicles with a capacity of approximately 15 persons will be utilised for shorter runs and it is also intended to have available several touring cars for private hire.

The Company also desires to run temporary services in places of Hindoo and Mahomedan pilgrimage during their annual fairs and festivals.

A thorough investigation has been made of the running cost of motor conveyances of all kinds and their estimated gross earnings and these enquiries clearly demonstrate that the Company has excellent prospects of producing encouraging results for its Shareholders.

The following contracts will be entered into by the Company:—

(1) Agreement dated the day of 1920 between the Company of the one part and Messrs. Dhurandhar Brothers of the other part for the appointment and remuneration of the said Messrs. The minimum Subscription on which the Directors may proceed to allotment is 10,000 Shares.

Royal Yakuti.

This Yakuti or life giving nectar has been prepared from the best, choicest, and richest vegetable drugs. I has wonderful properties of increasing virile power and it rectifies urinary disorders. In fact it makes man a man. This valuable medicine is used in large quantities not only by our Rajas, Maharajas, Nawabs and many of the nobility, aristocracy and gentry in this country, but it is greatly patronized by people in all countries of Europe, America, Asia and Africa. It is needless to expatiate upon the magical qualities of this our invaluable medicine. We recommend it especially to those persons who desire to tone the nervous system, to strengthen the body, refresh the memory, and to guard against debility. Suffice it to say that the use of this medicine is recommended to those who have any faith in the Ayurvedic medicines. It works like a charm and the effect is lasting. It replaces lost power and rejuvenates the emaciated and it is enough to say that musk is not that which a perfumer admires. It is that which diffuses fragrance of its own accord. Price per tin containing 40 pills, Rupees ten only.

COTTON.

(From Our Correspondent.)

Sept. 28.

A meeting was held to-day in the Marwari Bazar at about 12-30 noon where it was decided to send 5 representatives from the Cotton Brokers' Association to see His Excellency the Governor and argue the matter there, on Friday next. In the meantime our market for forward business is kept closed until further notice.

Owing to heavy slump in New York markets of 200 points our market for ready cotton is very weak with very little enquiry at much reduced rates.

INDIGESTION

is rarely due to any organic derangement of the digestive organs, but instead is almost always caused by acidity and food fermentation, which, by irritating and distending the stomach, causes most of the pain and distress variously known as indigestion, flatulence, gastritis, and acidity. Neutralise the acid and stop the fermentation, and nine times out of ten the trouble will disappear. For this purpose one of the best things is to take Bisurated Magnesia Tablets. Those who have tried them say the results are truly remarkable—all pain and distress disappearing within five minutes. Go to-day to your chemist, and get a flask of Bisurated Magnesia Tablets. Take two or three with a little warm water immediately after eating or whenever pain is felt, and very soon you will be telling your dyspeptic friends that they too will be able to eat what they like with impunity if they follow your example, and take

BISURATED MAGNESIA.

Bisurated Magnesia is one of the best remedies for Indigestion and is also obtainable in powder form.

DO WHAT YOU CAN.

MRS. SARALA DEVI'S APPEAL.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

CALCUTTA, Sept. 27.

Srimati Sarala Devi Chaudhrani has addressed an open letter to her countrymen on the Non-Cooperation movement. She says:—

"Mahatma Gandhi has placed before the public his programme of non-violent Non-Cooperation. I find that in Bengal there are real difficulties for many in the way of working it out in toto. I, therefore, appeal to my brethren who feel for the Punjab and yet cannot go through the whole gamut to think it out for themselves and decide which portion of the above programme thy can act up to. May I venture to suggest to each one of you individually that, if you cannot venture to withraw your children immediately from educational institutions controlled by Government, you can at least make an attempt to organise national schools and colleges. If you cannot give up your practice as lawyers yet you can at least make an attempt to organise arbitration courts. One thing is certain. Bengali people could not turn back upon Swadeshi and thereby belie their past history. I would consider it my sacred duty and privilege to work for the cause of Non-Cooperation in Bengal with the help and assistance of my brethren, keeping in view the special circumstances of the Province. I shall, therefore, be glad to know which of you are prepared to help me towards the furtherance of the work and in what direction."

An A. P. message from Patna, dated September 27, says:—

The case against a Sadhu for alleged seduction of Indian troops was remanded by the additional District Magistrate. It transpired the Sadhu, whose name is Brijnandan, belongs to an organisation the object of which is to bring back people to the ancient Indian mode of plain living and high thinking.

STRIKES IN BOMBAY.

PROSPECTS OF SETTLEMENT.

STRIKE IN SEWRI OIL COMPANIES OVER.

WHEN WILL POSTAL STRIKE END?

The public will be glad to learn that of the three strikes that have been going on in the city for the last few days, the strike of the workmen of the Oil Companies at Sewree has come to satisfactory termination, and hopes are now entertained of a settlement being arrived at in regard to the other two, namely the Postal and Telegraphic strike and the Mathradas Mill strike.

END OF OIL STRIKE.

Mr. F. J. Ginwala, solicitor, said the managers of the oil companies at Sewree yesterday morning, when the latter agreed to comply with the workmen's demand for a 20 per cent. increase as war allowance, and further agreed, on the men resuming work, to go into the question of bonus and provident or gratuity fund, with Mr. Ginwala and the men's representatives. Mr. Ginwala then addressed the strikers and advised them to resume work which they promised to do to-day.

POSTAL AND TELEGRAPH STRIKES.

As to the most important of the three strikes, namely the Postal and Telegraphic strike, there now appears some chance of a settlement although no formal negotiations have as yet taken place. Several new centres have been opened during the past few days in different parts of the city, but this does not appear to have appreciably relieved the congestion caused by the strike. Registered letters are now being delivered through postal clerks

TO-MORROW'S PUBLIC MEETING.

MR. BAPTISTA TO ADRESS.

A public meeting of the citizens of Bombay will be held to-morrow (Thursday) at 6-30 p.m. at the Shantaram Chawl to consider what steps should be taken to remove the present dead-lock between the postmen and telegraphmen and the Post and Telegraph authorities. Mr. Joseph Baptista Bar-at-law will address the meeting on behalf of the men.

'NEARLY NEVER REACHED."

Mrs. Grumpy writes to "The Chronicle.":—

Oh, Mr. Editor, oh dear, dear, have you ever heard such a thing in your life? A letter from my daughter in Bangalore nearly never reached me, never reached me. I said only nearly because it did after all reach me. Yes it did. This is how it happened Mr. Editor. My son 'arry is scout—Boy Scott they call them. Fine fellers them chaps. We Anglo-Indian expect 'em to do their duty and why should not we? Did not good old England expect in Nelson's time every man to do his duty? Did you say "England expects everyman to pay his duty vide custom house text." So long as it is duty it don't matter, Mr. Editor, whether you do it or pay it. We Anglo-Indians believe in doing, doing things, doing deeds, yes brave deeds, doing persons, yes, even brave persons—so long as it is doing that will do. Well, well, I says I was writing about 'arry and about letters. For three days we did not get our letters and we were naturally worrying. No letter from Doris, none from Jims and they never kept us without a letter even a single day. What right have these postmen to strike! What right have they to keep my Doris' and my Jims—God bless 'em—letters from their mother? Oh, don't I feel like striking someone when I think of it. Strike when the iron is 'ot. I will strike 'em whether the iron; hot or cold. I don't care. It don't matter. Fancy striking for more wages. They imagine they've struck the gold reef. My husband strikes when he wants something. Do them postmen think that they will get anything by a policy of non co-operation with the Government of the country. I bet you they forget my 'arry and other people's 'arry's. You wait my daughter Doris will be soon here and will join her sister girl guides to put this new "Tamasha" down. Lady Freeland will see to that.

Struck for wages! If they don't like the wages let them leave the country. We don't want them. Let them go to Mespot. It is not a joke. not to get your letters every morning and when we have a postman in our house 'arry is as good as ten of them. But at last 'arry got them. That old Mrs. Grubby—the cat—that lives over there, she thought she would get my mail and read it so she goes to the post office and gives my name and asks for my letters. Fancy she actually has the cheek to imagine she is me. But 'arry sees it. 'arry sees everything. 'arry hears everything. We call him 'arry the heves-dropper. He gave Mrs Grubby in the charge of the yellow cops and got my letters. My 'arry, aint 'e simply clever. Postmen better be on the look out or—well—I will set my 'arry on 'em.

PAYMENT TO STRIKERS OF WAGES EARNED.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL'S NOTICE.

From

The Postmaster-General,
Bombay Circle.

To

The Hony. Secretary,
Bombay Presidency Postmen's Union.

No. Strike, dated Bombay the 28th Sept. 1920.

Sir,—I have the honour to ask you to inform all the members of your Union who have struck work, as well as the Telegraph Peons, Boy Messengers, etc., that they will be paid what is due to them (a) on 1st October for September i.e. from the 1st to 19th inclusive, and (b) in the case of the Postal men the first half of the back pay due to them under the Time Scale Orders, as soon as the Establishment Bill can be prepared by the Presidency Postmaster, (c) whatever back pay is due to the Telegraph Peons as soon as the Superintendent, Central Telegraph Office, Bombay, can have the pay sheets etc., made out, on condition that they return to the authorities their uniforms in good order.

2. I am of course aware that this action will perhaps prolong the strike by increasing the resources of the strikers. But it would not in my opinion be just to withhold from the men what they have actually earned up to midnight of 19th instant.

I have &c.,

JHANSI MEN'S SUPPORT.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

JHANSI, Sept. 28.

A mass meeting of the G. I. P. Railway employees, attended by over 5,000 men, was held here on Saturday last, Mr. Saunders presiding. Mr. Ghule, the representative of the staff explained to the audience their present situation. The meeting was unanimously in favour of the constitutional methods, which the Igatpuri Conference had adopted. Men are hopeful and are determined to stand by the decision of Mr. Pryke, Chairman of the Igatpuri conference.

MERCHANTS' COMPLAINT.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "CHRONICLE."

Sir,—Please permit a small space for the following matter of great public interest as by doing so you will ventilate the grievances of the mercantile world and also of the public.

A meeting of some of the members of the Bombay Commission Agents' Association was held in the Association Hall on Friday last to consider what should be done to have the present disorder in the deliveries of Posts and Telegraphs removed and to smoother the matter as before. It is found that not only is there irregularity in the deliveries; but one can easily observe that very few of the letters addressed to any firm or merchant reach it or him, and that a major portion of any letters fall into wrong hands while several of them remain undelivered and find place in the enormous heaps at the General or town Post Offices. Many have seen that the covers at the different delivery centres are broken open and again mixed among the heaps; this fact leads one to think that many of such opened letters may have been carried away by the openers. If such letters contain cheques or Hundies—it is likely soue may contain such document—imagine, sir, the difficulties that many arise. With all such disorders and chaos one reads to one's great surprise, in the "Times" that more centres are opened in different parts of the City and that the deliveries are properly made. Itappears that every possible arrangement is being made as regards the regular deliveries of Posts and Telegraphs, in the Fort; but even there the work is not to the satisfaction of the several offices and firms As for the management in the City itself, it is far from satisfactory.

The Strikers' complaint is that they do not get sufficient salary to cover their monthly expenses, If the authorities were to consider this question, quite unbiassed and with a cool head they would not fail to see that the demand of the Postmen is reasonable and just; and so it would be wise on the part of the officials not to satisfy it.

Howsoever delivery centres may be opened in the different parts of the Fort and the City, and howsoever, Boy Scouts may be available to grapple with the difficulty, one thing is sure and certain that the vacuum caused by the strike of the postmen cannot possibly be filled up by any means; and it would be a wise for the Government to consider the pros and cons of the matter and so to arrange as to put a stop to the great inconvenience and grievance under which the public are greatly labouring.—Yours, etc., etc.,

N. B. DESHPANDE.

"EXPERTS" ON INDIAN POLITICS.

EXPOSED BY MR. HORNIMAN.

Mr. Horniman writes to the "Daily Herald":

The agency telegram regarding the action likely to be taken by the Indian National Congress on Mr. Gandhi's Non-Co-operation programme, and the state of Indian opinion regarding, it, is in several respects misleading

It is not true that Mr. Surendranath Banerjea has not missed a Congress for fifty years. The Congress has not been in existence for more than 35 years. Mr Banerjea broke away from the Congress in August, 1918, on the occasion of the Special Session in Bombay to consider the Montagu Chelmsford reform scheme. He refused to attend the Congress then and has not attended either of the two Sessions held since at Delhi in December, 1918, and Amritsar, in 1919. He took a leading part in organising the abortive Moderate Conference. The suggestion that he is severing his connection with the Congress now on account of the Non-Co-operation Movement, is thus quite erroneous.

The statement that Mr. Gandhi is taking several hundred followers to Calcutta to "pack" the Congress is absurd. The number of delegates at a Congress Session nowadays is about 6,000. These delegates come from all parts of India, and no single party leader could hope to "pack" the Congress. If the Congress adopts Mr. Gandhi's programme, it will be because the thousands of delegates, representing the whole population of British India, have been forced to his conclusion that refusal to co-operate with the Government that has betrayed the Indian Mussulmans and so lamentably failed properly to deal with those responsible for the martial law horrors in the Punjab, is the only resource left to a people in despair.

Mr. Banerjea's lugubrious prognostications of the death-knell of the Congress being sounded by what he calls a policy of boycott come very quaintly from the "agitator" who led the militant boycott movement in Bengal from 1906 to 1911, and strove hard to get the Congress not only to endorse it in the case of Bengal, but to adopt it for the whole of India. All the things that are now being said about Non-Co-operation by Mr. Banerjea and others were said about boycott by Mr. Banerjea's opponents in these days. But the boycott agitation did not bring the end of the Congress or of Mr. Banerjea, or of the cause for which he carried it on. It ended with the triumph of that cause—the revocation of the Partition of Bengal.

B. G HORNIMAN.

THREE QUERIES TO SIR GEORGE LLOYD.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—I hope you will allow me to put three short questions to His Excellency Sir G. Lloyd through the medium of your widely-read paper.

(1) Will His Excellency be pleased to announce to the people of Bombay when Mr. Horniman's presence in India will be in conformity with public safety?

(2) When will His Excellency think fit to refund the security of the "Bombay Chronncle" press? The Anglo-Indian press which remains perennially unmuzzled in spite of its actually wallowing in the poisonous mire of scurrility will provide ample food for reflection to His Excellency's Government.

(3) Will Sir George Lloyd, born and brought up in free democratic atmosphere, be pleased to preside over the public meeting which the Sheriff of Bombay will convene at an early date on the requisition of the citizens of Bombay to express their poignant grief at the sad demise of Mr. Tilak at a very critical period in Indian history.—Yours, etc.

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE.

Wednesday, September, 29, 1920.

WHY NOT COUNCIL OF ACTION ?

The Sub-Committee appointed by the All-India Congress Committee to frame a workable programme on the lines of the resolution passed at the Special Session has now issued its report. It is not the sort of report we expected. In the first place, the Sub-Committee has no right to say that "the Congress has approved of Mr. Gandhi's programme of progressive non-violent non-co-operation" and that it is "to determine the pace for the remaining three stages, viz., resignation of civil employment, military employment and suspension of payment of taxes." The Congress has done nothing of the sort. It has accepted a definite programme and has made no reservation or implication. That programme is fundamentally different from that of the Central Khilafat Committee, which is generally known as Mr. Gandhi's programme. What is now before the country is not the Khilafat Committee's programme, but the Congress programme. Further, the subject of Non-Co-operation is of such intricacy and of such grave importance that to approach it, as if nothing had been said or done in other countries and in other times, of a like nature, is bound to produce a weak, unsatisfactory and disappointing result. History can teach a great deal and we should not adopt the attitude which denies all importance to precedent. For instance no one is foolish enough to imagine that the Sinn Fein Movement arose all in a night without reference to what the world had thought and practised for centuries, for everyone knows that the Deak Movement in Hungary had been set by Sinn Fein as its model. Here is a colossal movement fraught with weighty consequences. The first idea that should strike the leaders is the creation of a centralised organisation whose roots should spread out to every town and to every village.

No doubt the Sub-Committee recommends the creation of a National Fund. Why not a National organisation as well? A pious hope that volunteers will do the work which should be directed with the precision and scientific management of the machinery of modern administration, will not do. A recommendation that deputations should go to the non-co-operators in order to persuade them of their folly is worse than useless if it is expected that voluntaryism is going to perform the functions of a well-thought-out organisation. We must rid ourselves of the habit of thinking that all will be well so long as a few resolutions have been duly passed, that the masses will respond with fervour and that the intellectuals will be suddenly converted into enthusiastic and devoted workers in the national cause. All will not be well unless we create a powerful organisation. It is not as if we were groping in the dark. The British Labour movement can teach us many lessons in organisation. Its latest move has been the creation of what is known as a Council of Action which seems to have arisen purely out of the political exigencies of the moment. Industrially British Labour has formulated a scheme for the creation of a General Staff of Labour. What is wrong with the idea of a Council of Action? Why not a General Staff of the leaders? It must be remembered that one of the most astounding facts of the situation in England has been the spontaneous manner in which councils of action have sprung up in practically every town which can boast of industrial organisation. This work did not take British Labour ten years just as it did not take Egypt six months to organise thoroughly. Is there any reason, why, before the next Congress meets, every town and hamlet should not boast of a Council of Action formed to carry out peacefully and intelligently, and gradually the policy of non-co-operation as defined by the Congress? None whatever except our slow and haphazard methods of work which invariably leave the leaders leagues behind the the aspirations, work and ideals of the rank and file. No doubt the masses are prepared to respond generously to the lead given by the Congress. But the lead must not leave everything in the air. We are glad to note, therefore, that in spite of Mr. Patel's idea about the feasibility of the boycott of foreign goods, the Sub-Committee has definitely destroyed the fetish of the ignorant enthusiasts. The veriest tyro of an economist knows that no country can exist to-day without foreign trade and it is an elementary axiom of economics that we live literally by taking in one another's washing. The Sub-Committee rightly condemns this part of the Congress resolution which if put into practice would bring untold misery upon the poor.

The formation of National Arbitration Courts and Volunteer Corps, the discouragement of recruiting for extra-territorial wars, the renunciation of titles and honorary offices, the foundation of National schools and the complete boycott of Councils may be commended. And yet, as we have said, this work must not be under-taken lightly. The very fact that the Congress insisted on the gradual execution of the boycott of schools and colleges and law-courts enjoins the duty on everyone of us to see to it that the vital and permanent interests of the people, which depend on education and administration of justice, should not be recklessly tempered with. Our great needs are preparation, propaganda and organisation. As for propaganda we recommend Mr. Patel's suggestion as against Mr. Gandhi's for the spread of propaganda abroad. Lokmanya Tilak's idea, derived no doubt from the evidence of the splendid work done by Lala Lajpat Rai's Information Bureau in New York, of creating ambassadorships in all the principal foreign countries should not be brushed aside lightly. Not only is it necessary to educate the public at home but it is equally necessary to bring the consciousness of his responsibility to every foreigner who is directly or indirectly concerned in the perpetuation of the present system in India. Is it of no consequence to us to gain the support of British Labour? Is it of no consequence to us to realise the affinity between British workers and Indian workers who are both being exploited by the same class which is in real control of the machinery of Government? Let us not learn from history that we can learn nothing from history. Let us look to the four corners of the world and build our house securely.

THE CO-OPERATIVE CONFERENCE.

A perusal of the proceedings of the Provincial Co-operative Conference, held at Poona, last week, is likely to leave on the readers the impression that the movement has passed the stage when the assemblage of co-operators from all over the Presidency could be productive of much good for purposes of propaganda. A gathering held under official auspices obviously fails to stir popular enthusiasm and will hardly succeed in enlisting a single recruit to the co-operative cause. And the very fact that to preside at these gatherings the Department secures no ardent co-operators, eager to propagate the cause and anxious to remedy defects, but overworked officials participating in the demonstration from a sense of duty—pleasantly or unpleasantly discharged—detracts from much of their value. In the circumstance, it will not be very profitable to deal exhaustively with Sir George Lloyd's opening address; it was a paraphrase and summary of the salient features of the Registrar's administration report. It could be hardly anything else, having regard to the fact that Sir George Lloyd has no first-hand knowledge of the needs and potentialities of the co-operative movement in this Presidency. Mr. Rothfald's report, on which the opening address was based, is indeed an interesting and readable publication, to a review of which we shall revert on another occasion. But as delegates to the Conference had copies of the report placed before them, they did expect something better than an amplification and exposition of the views and facts set forth in that publication. With attendance restricted to elected representatives of co-operative institutions—a move on which Mr. Rothfeld deserves to be congratulated—the Conference assumes the character of a deliberative assembly, a parliament of co-operators assembled for the consideration of problems of practical utility and is no longer a demonstration for converting the sceptic and for attracting fresh adherents to the fold. Other methods of propaganda have to be devised, but at the last Conference, co-operators seemed to be unaware of the import of the change, and unwilling to recognize that the old order had passed, and that the Conference was actually a deliberative assembly. They also failed to realize that henceforth their destinies were in their own hands, and that on the wisdom and soundness of their own decisions the future of the co-operative movement mainly depended. Such an attitude of mind, unable to appreciate the trend of progress, can lead, either to an adoption of hastily considered resolutions or to an inclination to shirk issues and postpone decisions. And this was exactly the net result of the Conference. The Conference could either have approved or negatived the various proposals to create a co-operative board, to establish a separate bank for producers' societies, to promote agricultural organization through federations, to provide suitable training for bank managers, to stimulate co-operative housing by active assistance in matters other than finance. But the decision of the Conference on all these problems of practical utility was—no decision. The only consolation is that hardly on any question of real importance was any hasty decision reached, which was repugnant to popular feeling or opposed to the spirit of the movement.

The procedure for the conduct of the work left much to be desired. Delegates were distributed among different sub-committees without previous consultation, a member was supplied with papers and notes pertaining only to the subjects referring to his particuliar sub-committee, and even on the day of the Conference, all papers were not supplied to the delegates, so as to enable them to follow, and actively participate in the discussions in open Conference, on the reports of sub-committees other than their own. And the grouping of subjects was defective; for instance, a note mainly relating to finance was included among the papers laid before the sub-committee on propaganda and organization, and it was not surprising that the sub-committee was compelled to refer it back to the Registrar as the suggestions dealt mainly with financing organization! The time allotted for discussion both in committees and in the Conference was very small. And the anxiety to rush through the work was so keen that a set of resolutions for the important subject of housing had simply to be recorded, without discussion. Mr. Rothfeld's own speech was of more than passing interest. He held forth before the Conference the ideal of a Co-operative Commonwealth, in which the profiteer and the capitalist will have no place, but in which the social and industrial system will be so organzied that consumers will control co-operatively all means of exchange or production, and production will in turn be carried on by groups of persons combining to exercise their calling in common for their common advantage. These are noble ideals, which new India will certainly make her own, for in this task of reconstruction, non-co-operators—against whom Mr. Rothfelds railed irrelevantly—will be no less keen than professed co-operators.

Notes of the Day.

The French Policy

The declaration of policy made by the French President, M. Millerand, shows that France is quite untractable. There is to be no material change in the French policy. Though M. Leygues has replaced M. Millerand as Premier and Minister for Foreign Affairs, all the members of the Millerand Cabinet remain in office. M. Millerand says that the country is determined to pursue, at home and abroad, the policy which has been followed for the last eighteen months. If so, it will be bad for France, bad for Europe and bad for the world. If peace is still distant, the world has to thank France for it. The President insists on the strict execution of the Peace treaty and pays lip-service to the cause of the League of Nations. The League has never been really popular in France who has always sought to strengthen herself by alliances. There is a very vague reference to reduction of armaments and while the Allies have relieved the Central Powers of their armaments they are not yet disposed to reduce the enormous burden under which they are groaning and so long as they do not cure themselves of Chauvinist aims, it will not be possible for the burden to be removed. France is directly making for another war, but there is nothing to prevent her boasting that she has resumed the work of peace with fervent ardour and that she is setting an example which is gaining the admiration of the world.

Polish Affairs.

Polish and Lithuanian delegates embraced each other in public recently and it was duly announced that they would be friends. But they have again broken out and are accusing each other of treachery and duplicity. Poland will never be at peace with its neighbours, so long as it is encouraged by the Allies. The League of Nations is absolutely powerless to intervene and the Supreme Council, that can do something, leans towards Poland. Any day Poland could have had peace, but it would not have it. As a matter of fact, it has no intention of confining itself within the frontiers defined by the Allies. It wants to expand on all sides and is blind to the fate it is rushing headlong to meet.

City Mothers.

So we are going to have women as municipal corporators! Citizens of Bombay will look in future not only to City Fathers to have their grievances redressed, but also to "City Mothers"—and City Mothers will look after their interests with greater sympathy. Leaving aside all the arguments that were advanced in support of the women's case at Monday's meeting of the Municipal Corporation, we welcome this entry of women in municipal politics solely on the ground—if not on any other—that men have failed to do their duty in making Bombay beautiful and healthy. Let us now give a chance to the women. Bad roads—rather a mild expression—bad lighting of streets, insufficient water supply, insanitary dwellings of are not a record of which a municipal council can be proud. Were it not for the beautiful natural surroundings Bombay could never claim to be the beautiful city of the East. Besides, Queen's Road and a few others where many of the present municipal corporators reside, have we a road in Bombay, which can come up to a road in the towns and cities of the West? Our City Fathers ought to have realised that long ago. A drive in the city is sufficient for any citizen to condemn the roads of Bombay. And the corporators must realise it by personal experience unless they never use the roads, but fly in the air. Those who live in the southern part of the Island can hardly realise the hardships of those who live in Parel and the other parts of the city. And thus instances can be multiplied showing how the Corporation has failed in performing the elementary functions of a modern Municipality.

Living in the Middle Ages.

We think that there is something radically wrong with the present constitution of our Municipality, that it is absolutely essential to overhaul the body from the top to the bottom. Any rate the class of citizen from whom the present corporator is elected has been tried and found wanting. The case of women truly speaking is so clear, so strong that we were surprised to see men like Dr. Sukhia. Mr. Haveliwala, Mr. Petit and Mr. Dhondy opposing it. Reactionaries, like the Biblical poor, we shall always have with us. It is to the credit of India that she should be one of the few countries, if not the only country in the world, which have never made any distinction in politics between men and women. No responsible leader in India has claimed any sex distinction in franchise. From times immemorial India has stood for sex equality. Let us hope that the verdict of the Municipality will be a warning to the Sukhia's, Haveliwala's and Petit's, who are so anxious to see the emergence of the suffragette in our land. Why should they be eager to proclaim to the world that they are living in the middle ages?

The Postal Conference.

The Postal Conference met this year in Delhi under the presidency of Mr. Khaparde The President very properly advised the Conference to send delegates to the forthcoming Congress of Trade Unions to be held in Bombay, and, take part in the larger life of the country. Isolated movements are not likely to succeed in these days. The Conference discussed departmental grievances and though it is too much to expect that the Postal officials will pay due regard to it just now, one day the Conference speaking for all organised Postal employees will have to be seriously reckoned with. The Conference expressed its sympathy with the Bombay strikers and requested Government to arrive at an early settlement. Government are engaged in other pastimes and presumably they have no time to devote to such petty matters. Considerable dissatisfaction was expressed at the Conference regarding the forcible recruitment of postmen from other places for service in Bombay. Some Muttra postmen have even been dismissed. We do not think there is the slightest understanding with postmen that they have been engaged for an All-India service. Outsiders are of no use in Bombay and as for cost, Government are paying to the outsiders the maximum demanded by the Bombay postmen. The sooner Government realise that all such efforts are quite useless and set about the right thing to be done to bring about a satisfactory settlement the better. The clerical revision also is unsatisfactory and the Imperial Government cannot introduce an inferior scale to that given by the local Government to its employees. The minimum demands made by the Delhi Postal Conference deserve sympathetic consideration at the hands of the Government As Mr. Khaparde put it, the Post Office is really the main artery of all administration and commerce and it cannot be left to the bureaucracy to deal with it as it wills, regardless of the well-being of the employees. When will Government wake up?

All's Well!

Postal officials and the Anglo-Indian papers are signalling to each other that everything is all right. According to our morning contemporary, the situation is daily improving, "thanks largely to the voluntary help which is available and to the general co-operation of the public, who recognise in this lightening strike, an attempt to hold up a necessary pubic service." The fables of our contemporary will mislead no one. If the "Times of India" is honest, it should give up all these pretences of proving that "black is white." If postmen must be smashed, then public inconvenience is a matter of no importance. Whatever be the cost and whatever the sufferings, they should be patiently borne. Our contemporary would do well to follow that line rather than tell a patent untruth that everything is all right. What is all right? Money orders have been stopped; registered letters have been stopped and insured articles have been stopped. Mr. Sams may next stop all letters and telegrams to and from Bombay. Then everything would indeed be all right!

No!

"Will Government be pleased to state whether any industrial schools have been started in any of the districts during the last two years? If so, what are the subjects taught in such schools?" Government gave the mono-syllabic reply much in favour in the Secretariat,—"No"—to this question by the Hon. Mr. P. A. Desai. Presumably the hon. member does not know that the last two years have been exclusively devoted by Sir George Lloyd to exciting an interest in technical education. When people have been taught to value technical education, when financial difficulties have been over come, then, ——— ! We cannot have everything in a hurry. Rome was not built in a day. We must have patience. Better wait and see!

"Under Consideration."

"Under consideration" is constantly met with in the replies given by Government to interpellations. The Hon. Gulam Jilani Bijlikhan enquired of Government as to what arrangements they had made to provide for the teaching of the Indian vernaculars which have now been given a place in the B.A. curriculum. The reply tendered was that the matter was "under consideration." What are Government considering about? What serious and complicated questions are involved in this simple matter, necessitating delay? The Bombay University has sanctioned the inclusion of the Vernaculars in the B.A. curriculum and Government should make due arrangements in their colleges for teaching the Indian vernaculars. It cannot be said that qualified men cannot be had or that there are any difficulties in the way of recruitment. Government are not called upon to maintain chairs in all the vernaculars at all the colleges under them. Marathi may be taught in the Deccan College and arrangements made for Gujerati and Kanarese in Ahmedabad and Dharwar respectively. RENEWED RIOTING IN BELFAST.

ONE CONSTABLE AND THREE CIVILINS KILLED

POLICE BARRACKS AT TRIM RAIDED

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Sept. 26.
Recd. 1-40 p.m. Sept. 28.

As the result of renewed rioting in Belfast early this morning one constable and three civilians have been killed and two constables seriously wounded. There have been other disturbances in many districts and fierce stone throwing has taken place. The curfew order has again been imposed.

It appears that the civilians fired on the police patrol and that one constable was killed and two were wounded before the attack was repelled.

It transpires that the three civilians, who were killed apparently in reprisals, were shot in their homes. It is declared that two were known Sinn Feiners. Altogether six persons were taken to hospital and a number of the other injured were treated in their own homes.

While half of a garrison of ten were at church a hundred and fifty Sinn Feiners surprised and captured the police barracks at Trim and removed in motor cars a dozen rifles, a thousand rounds of ammunition, numbers of revolvers and the Verey lights and other military equipment. The Chief Constable was severely wounded. The barracks were set on fire and destroyed.

There were two separate attacks on the police patrols on Saturday night. The assailants jumped out from their cover and fired point blank without a warning. After that firing spread to several districts. Intense excitement prevailed all day Sunday when for the first time the city police were armed with rifles. Rioting was resumed on Sunday and lasted throughout the day. Rival crowds threw stones and fired revolvers at each other. The trams were stopped but late at night order was restored. At least eighteen people were wounded.

FRENCH CHAMBER

MINISTERIAL DECLARATION BY NEW PREMIER.

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN GOVERNMENT.

(REUTER'S TEEGRAM.)

LONDON, Sept. 25.
Recd. 1 p.m., Sept. 28.

In the Chamber to-day the new Premier, M. Leygues made a Ministerial declaration in the course of which he said that he would continue his predecessor's policy and would see that all the treaties were carried out.

The Chamber, except for the Socialists heartily applauded M. Leygues declaration but the uproar was caused by the Socialist M. Bracke, suggesting that M. Millerand had chosen Ministers which M. Leygues hotly repudiated.

The Socialist M. Berthon, inquired whether the Government intended to co-operate with Labour. He complained that many Trades Unionists had been imprisoned for weeks and months without a trial in order to break the strike for nationalisation of transport.

M. Leygues declared that France would never forget Russia's immense services at the beginning of the war. France did not intend to interfere in Russia but material air for the reconstruction of Poland was in accordance with the French tradition. He asserted that the Chamber had approved by a large majority the previous Government's Labour policy and appealed for union on the home front.

The extraordinary session then closed with a vote of confidence in the Government which was passed by 507 votes to 80.

M. MILLERAND ELECTED UPON HIS OWN TERMS.

TO REVIVE OLD CONSTITUTIONAL POWERS OF PRESIDENT.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)

LONDON, Sept. 26.
Recd. 12 noon, Sept. 28.

A striking departure in connection with M. Millerand's election which has passed almost unheeded here is the fact that he was elected upon his own terms and not as a figurehead. He intends in future by reviving a number of powers which the Constitution gives the President, but which for a long time have remained practically a dead letter to be the actual Chief Director of the State and its policy. For example, M. Millerand holds that Article Eights of the Constitution aBords the President power to negotiate and ratify a treaty. Hence it is thought likely that he will take an active part in the direction of France's foreign policy. It is declared that he is likely to overshadow the Premier as much as the American President dominates the Cabinet.

The new President is a Socialist by origin, yet has arrived at a position of almost monarchical authority and prestige as such are known in countries where the Crown actively participates in the direction of affairs. In any case, it is confidently anticipated that the changes will but help to solidify Anglo-French relations.

SOVIET JEWELS.

RUSSIA'S WORLD-WIDE PLAN FOR PROPAGANDA.

DISCLOSURES BY THE "OBSERVER"

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)

LONDON, Sept. 26.
Recd. 12 noon, Sept. 28.

The "Observer" discloses that the revelations regarding the "Daily Herald" and the Russian jewel transactions are an infiinitesimal part of an enormous Russian plan to raise funds for propaganda throughout the world by systematic confiscation throughout Russia of all jewels. M. Kameneff originated the scheme in April, 1918, which was elaborated by a Polish diamond merchant. It involved house to house searches and confiscation of jewels. These were carefully guarded and selected parcels were sent to all parts of the world for disposal in a prearranged and careful manner. Germany and America have already had a large share while a number of parcels have already been sold in Japan, France, England and Holland. The discovery of the "Herald's" transaction was due to the stupidity of the agents in insisting on payment in English currency. Moreover, several recent visitors to Russia from England have already returned with Bolshevik propaganda and jewels. The Soviet officials at the frontiers call these folk Brilliantchiki. The Soviet jewel department is very active in the East and Kemal Pasha has already had a number of beautiful stones.

Numbers of their girl friends had been seized, nationalised and sent to the Chinese lines. The nationalisation of women is conducted systematically by the Jewish commissaries, while every month fixed weeks are officially proclaimed "free love weeks."

Bloemfontein.—The Dutch Congress held to achieve reunion between the Nationalists favouring decession from the Empire and the Government party has failed to effect a rapproachment owing to the former's insisting on their programme. Nevertheless a striking and unexpected result of this remarkable Congress has been the strengthening of trust and the securing of closer friendship between the loyal Dutch and the English than ever before.

LOYALTY OF BACK-VELD BOERS.

STAUNCHEST ADVOCATES OF THE UNION.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)

LONDON, Sept. 27.
Recd. 2-45 p.m., Sept. 28.

Bloemfontein.—At the Dutch Congress a number of back-veld Boers, who fought long in the South African War were the staunchest advocates against the tearing up of the Constitution. They showed unswerving loyalty to the promises to dury the hatchest given at the time of the union. A typical utterance was made by a former Cape rebel who said that England had redeemed her pledges so they would stand by the Constitution and if anybody tried to pull down the British flag his rifle would be raised in its defence.

The English-speaking South African press is most eulogistic as regards the dignified loyalty of these typical Boers and expresses the opinion that it will lead to closer cooperation and harmony between the two races.

REACTION IN PRICES OF COMMODITIES

REFLECTED EFFECTS OF OVER-PRODUCTION.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Sept. 27.
Recd. 1-40 p.m. Sept. 28.

Newspapers are drawing attention to the reaction in the prices of commodities which is beginning to show itself in Britain and the United States. The over-production of certain commodities, for example, rubber, tea and cocoa is being reflected not only in the schemes for restriction of the output of rubber and tea, but in lower prices. For example, multiple shops companies in Britain have reduced the retail prices of tea by two pence to four pence a pound, coffe has been reduced from two shillings and four pence to two shillings and cocoa from 2/2 to 1/8.

Further textile companies in United States have made cuts in prices ranging from thirty to forty per cent.

INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL CONFERENCE.

INDIAN DELEGATION'S STATEMENT.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Sept. 26.
Recd. 1-15 p.m., Sept. 28.

Brussels.—The various delegations of the International Financial Conference have not yet settled down to practical discussions but have issued statements as to the conditions in their respective countries.

The Indian Delegation in a statement indicates that the difficulties with which India contends in consequence of the war are similar to those of the other countries in character but different in degree. They are "inflated currency, top-heavy floating debt and embarrassing prices." These problems are being tackled by the recognition of the imperative necessity of sound finance by balancing the Budget and by the reduction of the inflation of currency, apart from which India is assisted by the fact that she is in a special position as a large producer of raw commodities essential to the world's reconstruction. The statement concludes:—The whole crux of the question clearly is provision for adjustment of financial arrangements.

SLAUGHTER OF MILCH CATTLE.

COMMITTEE OF ENQUIRY TO BE APPOINTED.

MR. PURUSHOTTAMDAS' RESOLUTION CARRIED

BOMBAY LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

POONA, Sept. 28.

Yesterday with an astonishing rapidity the Legislative Coucil passed through their second and final stages ten Bills and debated upon the Bill attempting to consolidate the law relating to pleaders with a deliberation of movement which was equally astonishing, considering the chorus of approval with which the Select Committee's labours on that Bill were greeted.

The evening was taken up with the revival of the discussion on the Tobacco Bill. But for the limitation of space it would be useful in the public interest to expose just now the callousness of the Government regarding the matter, but mention must be made of the impression in the Council that they would have been more active in the matter had the question been one of taxing foreign tobacco. The fact is the Government do not wait to make up the deficit. The Bombay Municipality would be entitled to it had the present proposal been adopted So they coolly and after three postponements just dropped the whole business. One would have expected from an officer of the calibre of Mr. Curtis a more intelligent and straightforward statement of the reasons why Government were insisting now upon withdrawing this measure. It is a pity he did not do so.

RESOLUTIONS TAKEN UP.

To-day after the passage of two more non-controversial measures, to the surprise of all those who expected the Development Bill to be brought up for its second reading to-day, the Government proceeded to take up the resolutions. The reason for this holding up of the only important measure in the agenda became apparent later on. It was due to the expected arrival of Mr. Hailey, the Finance Minister of the Government of India, who is reported to be anxious to discuss the development measures of the Bombay Government with the Executive Council of our local Government on Thursday, so that our local Legislative Assembly will have a holiday on Thursday and meet again on Friday. It is expected that an announcement will be made to this effect tomorrow evening. Meanwhile, the early afternoon saw everybody in the Council pleased with the manner in which the Government had calmed down regarding the Port Trust Bill. The Port Trust is now to build not glorious hotels at the expense of the general taxpayer, but just continue to have waiting rooms with refreshments and sleeping accommodation provided in them. Nobody minded this and the Bill was duly passed and we came to the milch cattle.

The milch cattle occupied the council for a considerable time and at 4 p.m. the Hon. Mr. Purushottamdas Thakordas had the satisfaction of finding his resolution accepted by Government. He wanted the Bombay Government to represent to the Government of India the necessity of a Special Committee of official and non-officials being appointed to submit a comprehensive report regarding the condition of cattle in the whole of India and the advisibility of devising a check on the slaughter and export of cattle generally and of milch cattle in particular. Mr. Purshottamdas armed with a mass of facts and figures was in fine form and made a speech which was absolutely extempore and greatly imposed the council. His contention was that Government hardly realised public feeling in the matter and that they had done absolutely nothing in checking the export of cattle.

GOVERNMENT'S ATTITUDE.

Attempts from the Government side to show that the problem was not serious, that it was more sentimental than anything else were not wanting Mr. Lawrence, the Financial Secretary better known to the Council as Commissioner in Sind signalised himself by giving figures which showed that there had been an increase of fifty per cent. in the total number of cattle in India.

Mr. Lalubhai Samaldas also who never addresses the Council unless he has something useful to say pointed out that Mr. Purushottamdas had not stressed the economic point of this problem of cattle preservation so much as the sentimental one.

Mr. Macnaghten confessed that according to him anybody guilty of killing the young cattle should be put in the lunatic asylum. It was evident that among non-official European members there was no lack of sympathy for Mr. Purshottamdas' demand for a committee of enquiry.

FOREST RESERVES FOR FODDER.

Rao Bahadur Godbole however approached the problem from a critical, although constructive point of view. He said conditions regarding the export of cattle. He suggested that Government should embark upon a policy of reserve for fodder purposes in Government. Mr. Curtis replied with the remark that the export of cattles which [illegible] would [illegible] put in [illegible] the house thoroughly enjoyed. They took an absolutely non possumus view of the case, but of course had no objection to the Government of India being asked by the local Government to move in the matter.

RESOLUTION ACCEPTED.

Mr. Purshottamdas rose to exercise his right of reply. He did not see any reason why he should be criticised for not making any constructive demand. He was there to represent the point of view of the man in the street. The electric light failed at this juncture and the Legislative Council began to be conducted in semi-darkness, but by general consent it assumed a colority for which the Press representative looked thankful. The Government accepted Mr. Purshottamdas' motion. After all it was a harmless business to move the Simla Government for a committee of enquiry.

EXECUTIVE DIVISION OF LAND.

Dewan Bahadur Godbole then moved his resolution regarding the executive subdivision of agricultural lands. As he confessed this was the third time he was bringing it up and he did so in a speech which was constructive in detail.

Mr. Paranjpye supported him, but thought this was inappropriate time for a motion like this. Ultimately the motion was lost by 12 votes to 22.

QUORUM FOR LOCAL BODIES.

Mr. Pandurangrao Desai then moved for an amendment regarding the number of members forming a quorum in local bodies and had to listen to a very timely homily on local self-government matters from Sir Ibrahim. The motion was lost and the house adjourned at six with a good many resolutions still on the agenda. The expectation, however, is that many will be withdrawn and there are hon. members optimistic enough to think that the whole session will be over to-morrow if only the Development Bill is discussed early to-morrow morning.

The Council again met on Tuesday noon, and the first question taken up was about the preservation of milch cattle in the Presidency. There were three identical resolutions on the subject, and as the President said, Mr. Purshotamdas resolution was the most comprehensive and he called upon him to move it. But as he was not there, Mr. Manmohandas moved his, after which when Mr. Purshotamdas arrived he moved his own resolution as an amendment. The whole morning was occupied in discussion of this question, and Mr. Purshotamdas made an exhaustive speech on the subject decision was arrived at when the Council adjourned for lunch, although all the members had spoken in favour of the resolution.

The two Bills concerning the Development Scheme of Government have still to be discussed, and it does not seem likely that the Council will be able to finish its business before another two days.

SLAUGHTER OF MILCH CATTLE.

Mr. Manmohandas, on the Council reassembling, on Tuesday, moved his resolution that this Council recomends to his Excellency the Governor in Council to take steps to prohibit the slaughter of young and useful milch and agricultural cattle in the Presidency with a view to have a useful economic and agricultural asset of the Presidency. He said the Calcutta Municipality had already taken measures to preserve cattle, and it was to be hoped that Government would also do the same. The number of cattle slaughtered every year grew more and more, and that was very harmful to the agricultural interest of this country, Mr. Manmohandas then read out a long speech in support of his resolution. Mr. Purshottamdas, in response to the suggestion of the President, moved the resolution which stood in his name. He moved it as an amendment to the previous resolution. It was that this Council recomends to his Excellency the Governor in Council, and the Government of Bombay, to represent to the Government of India the necessity of a Special Committee of official and non-officials being appointed to submit a comprehensive report regarding the condition of cattle in the whole of India and the advisability of devising checks on the slaughter and export of cattle generally, and of milch cattle, in particular.

A VERY COMPLEX AND GRAVE PROBLEM.

He said the problem was a very complex and grave one. The export of raw hides had increased by more than 50 per cent., and in 1913/14 it was nearly six lakhs cwt. The quality of cattle had been going down steadily. He could say this at least of this Presidency and this fact had never been controverted. He hoped that Government would appoint an expert to look into this question, and thought Government should see that the export of hides did not effect injuriously the interests of this country. He also thought the Government should follow the constructive policy of having the best breed of cattle in this Presidency, and also of having a larger number of veterinary dispensaries. There was a great necessity of having a check on the slaughter houses to prevent the slaughter of milch cattle and unfortunately even in the Bombay city ten thousand such cattle were slaughtered yearly. Government should give encouragement to "gowlies" in order to prevent cattle being sent to the slaughter houses. He then referred to the export of milch cattle recently to Brazil, a reference to which was made in press. Very high prices were paid for these cattle, and they were selected ones. In a reply, recently, Mr. Sarma in the Imperial Council had given an answer that the Board of Agriculture approved of the export of the cattle, but did not say how the breed in this country was to be maintained and what steps they had taken towards that object. The popular belief was that the export of cattle was increasing daily, and, that something should be done to maintain the breed in this country. He was glad the Bombay Government had undertaken the appointment of an expert to work into the above question, although he did not believe in Provincial action.

APPOINT A MIXED COMMITTEE.

He thought such a question should be dealt with, as a whole, by the Government of India. While he admitted that the public had not done much in this regard, he still believed that Government, which had the general interests of the community, at heart, were not absolved from their responsibility to the people. It was therefore quite necessary for the Imperial Government to appoint a committee of Non-Officials and Officials to go into the whole question. He then referred to the question of providing fodder for the cattle whenever there was a famine.

Mr. Upasani, seconding, said the slaughter of cattle was a grave scaldal, for if there were no cattle there would be no milk. He thought all steps should be taken to preserve cattle in this Presidency.

Shaikh Gulam Hussein said if Government prohibited the people from slaughtering animals it would mean an interference with the rights of the people. But, he said, Government should take steps to preserve the cattle in this country by other means. He controverted the charges that Mahomedans were the cause of the slaughter of cattle, as he said, on Hindu holidays, meat was very difficult to get. He, however, supported the resolution, whole heartedly.

Mr. Harchandrai Vishindas said there could be no interfering with human liberties as Government were already controlling the exports of food stuffs and other things. India was peculiarly an agricultural country and milk, curds, and ghee were some of the chief articles of food. He supported the amendment of Mr. Purshottamdas, as it was a very comprehensive one. Mahomedans were not much in favour of eating beef, and it was, therefore, not necessary for them to kill cattle for food.

NEED OF THOROUGH ENQUIRY.

Mr. Harilal Desai thought an enquiry into the question was needed. The prices of milk and ghee, along with other things, had gone up so high that people were hard hit. The question concerned them in many ways. For one thing it was harmful to the best interests of the country. He did not know if Government had made any forest lands over for the preservation of cattle. A thorough and exhaustive enquiry was quite necessary into the whole question. He thought the notion that export encouraged breeding required to be enquired into by a Committee.

Mr. G. K. Parakh in supporting the amendment said the popular belief was that the present terrible mortality of infants in the principal cities was due to the scarcity of milk. He thought if proper remedies were pointed out to Government they would not be backward in applying them. He supported the amendment.

Mr. Mudalier also spoke in support.

A REFUTATION.

Mr. Lallubhoy Samaldas had lost faith in all committees, as they were made to delay matters. But, in his case, they had no data and he hoped a committee would be able to supply them with with full particulars. He did not agree with Mr. Purshottamdas that the public had done nothing in the matter. He himself had done something in the matter, and only in that day's paper there was a scheme of a gentleman who had started a company with Rs. 5 crores of capital, and he hoped the Government expert would give that company every help.

"CATTLE SHOULD BE PRESERVED."

Mr. P. A. Desai, supporting, said cattle should be preserved for the good of the whole country. Regarding the remarks of Shaik Gulam Hussain, he said, when the interests of the whole country were concentrated the interests of individuals and communities should not come in the way.

Mr. Paranjpye, supporting, said milk and ghee were going up in price, every day, and the quality had considerably deteriorated.

Mr. Godbole said probably the effects of the Committee would be felt by the next generation. He did not think that the result of their investigations would be available during the next ten years. The best thing was to develop the sense of the agriculturists by driving into their heads that they should not keep more animals than they could feed in the hot weather.

Mr. Purshotamdas asked whether the surplus cattle were to be sent to the butchers.

Mr. Godbole said he could not go into that question. They might do anything they like with the surplus, but he objected to cattle not being properly looked after.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

AFTER LUNCHO.

When the Council met again after lunch the discussion on the Pleaders' Bill was continued. Mr. Harilal Desai's amendment that a retaining fee shall only be paid when a pleader has to appear in proceedings in the Court was opposed by the Advocate-general. Mr. Desai's contention was that pleaders who have to draft wills or other documents will not be allowed to act for any other party even after they had forgotten everything about it after the lapse of several years. Government opposed the amendment and it was lost.

Mr. Pandurang Desai wanted to amend clause II (1) which made it obligatory for a pleader not to appear for a client unless his fee was paid fully to the effect that he would not be bound to perform it. He thought a pleader might like to appear for a client who was not able to pay all his fees immediately but might do so after a time. Was the pleader to be compelled to render no assistance to his client on that account? The amendment was lost.

BILL PASSES THIRD READING.

After some further amendments had been moved and lost, Mr. B. S. Kamat moved an amendment to schedule three, rule 1 (c) limiting the pleaders' fees in any case to Rs. 750 irrespective of the amount or value of the subject matter in dispute, in any proceedings. The mover said it was a lawyers' day and he wanted to move his amendment to protect the poor clients. He thought that a limit must be set to the fees of the pleaders. Mr. Harilal Desai thought the amendment was brought to favour rich men, capitalists and big Government contractors and not the poor cultivators. He opposed the amendment. After Shaik Hidayatullah had opposed it, Mr. Sathe said sometimes pleaders had to do more work for the fees they received and it was not right therefore to restrict their fees. The amendment was negatived after Sir George had opposed it on behalf of the Government. The bill was then read a third time and adopted.

GOVERNOR RECTIFIES HIMSELF.

The Governor said he was wrong in disallowing Mr. Purshottamdas from making his speech in the morning after the bill was withdrawn. It ought to have been actually moved and withdrawn. The Bill was then introduced and Mr. Purshottamdas made his speech after which the Bill was withdrawn for the Reformed Council to be dealt with.

The amendments to the Bombay District Police Act were also passed. The amendment to the Rent Act was then introduced making a slight change in the Act and passed. The Bill further to amend the Bombay Port Trust Act for the provision of temporary accommodation for passengers using the port on arrival and departure was also adopted without any discussion. A Bill slightly to amend the Bombay Municipal Act empowering the Corporation to raise the maximum general rate to seventeen per cent. was also adopted by the Council without any controversy. The Bill enabling the Commissioner of Police, Bombay to delegate to Superintendents the less important part of his duties such as signing licences, etc., was then passed at one sitting. Sir Ibrahim then introduced and got adopted the Bill amending the Bombay Boiler Inspection Act delegating to the Director of Industries the powers and duties of the Collector of Bombay under the Act. The Council then adjourned till Tuesday.

RUMOUR OF RIOTING AT MEERUT.

"DAILY TELEGRAPH'S" CONTRADICTION

BIBLE CLASSES.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—I shall feel very much obliged if you will kindly lend me some space in your esteemed daily for the following.

It has been a long-standing grievance of the students attending Missionary schools and colleges that they are compelled to attend Bible classes. The students of the Wilson College are, therefore, to be congratulated by the student community for the courageous and honourable step they have now taken against such compulsion. The students have in a general meeting condemned the compulsory attendance, and are sending a deputation to wait on the Principal and request him to make the attendance voluntary.

The Bible classes are held the first thing in the morning and occupy full one period, so that if a student is absent at the Bible class he is marked absent for the day though he attends all the other periods. I am not a student myself, but I am firmly of opinion that the grievance of the students of the Wilson College is real and requires immediate relief. During the whole period, the students breathe in the air of hypocrisy and fail in their moral duty. Is this the first lesson of the day for our future citizens that the Missionaries want to offer in their Colleges?

Again, the students are already burdened with too many subjects for the University examinations and study of Bible is not required by the University. What moral right has the Wilson College to compel its students to study Bible and sit for an examination conducted by itself? It is high time that the public interested themselves in this affair.—Yours, etc.,

A. KRISHNA RAO.

AGAINST NON-CO-OPERATION.

APPEAL BY SOME BENGAL LEADERS

(Associated Press.)

CALCUTTA, Sept. 28.

Sir Asutosh Chaudhari, Messrs. Satyandra Bose, J. N. Roy, J. Chaudhari and B. C. Chatterjee, have issued an appeal to their countrymen regarding the Congress resolution on Non-Cooperation. They say some of Bengal's leading representatives have withdrawn their candidature for the Council in obedience to the resolution of the majority of the Special Congress, although they had opposed the passing thereof with all the strength and earnestness they could command.

ELASTICITY OF CONGRESS.

"We apprehend that their withdrawal from elections is founded upon a misunderstanding of the nature and authority of Congress resolutions. The essence of Congress proceedings has been their elasticity, the majority never wishing or attempting to enforce their decision on the minority on the analogy of a legislative enactment. So Mr. Gandhi observed the aim of a dissenting minority in a particular session of the Congress should be to convert itself into a majority at the forthcoming one. But in this way the object would be more often than not defeated if the minority were in the meanwhile to carry out the will of the majority in the spirit of submission to a law and the question of boycotting Councils would serve as a useful illustration. A series of majority decisions at the forthcoming sessions of the Congress in favour of its members entering Councils would serve no practical purpose, whereas the harm entailed in the procedure we are deprecating would be much intensified if at the session of the Congress immediately preceding the next elections Mr. Gandhi were to succeed by one of his supreme efforts in registering another majority vote against entry into Councils.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA ACT.

We would earnestly plead with our countrymen not to lead the great institution along the path of futility by treating it as though it were a legislative body which it is not. We would also appeal to our countrymen not to dismiss the new Government of India Act in a spirit of light-heartedness, but rather we would ask them to appraise this enactment at its real worth by examining into the circumstances of its causation. All the results of our endeavour has gone to the making of the new charter, which we should succeed in seeing in its correct perspective if only we could discipline ourselves to look not merely into our immediate present, but also into our immediate past."

PARTIAL SWARAJ.

After quoting from Mr. Aurobindo Ghosh's political will and testament published in "Karma Yogin" in which he said India must accept partial Swaraj as a means and step towards complete Swaraj, the appeal concludes:—"We earnestly appeal to our countrymen to take up the task of partial Swaraj in that spirit of concentration and consecration which alone can lead it into the fruition of complete Swaraj,—the fixed and unalterable goal of our common aspiration and common endeavour."

SALE OF REVERSE COUNCILS

STOPPED FOR THE PRESENT.

(Associated Press.)

A Government of India Press Communique says:—

"The Government of India have been in continuous communication during the past few months with the Secretary of State on the subject of the sale of Reverse Councils. Since the 1st February the note circulation has been reduced from 185 crores to 158 crores on the 15th September, and this material contraction of currency has to a large extent been rendered possible by the maintenance of the weekly offer to sell Sterling drafts on London. The effect which might have been anticipated on the exchange value of the rupee by reason of the withdrawal of this substantial amount of currency notes has, however, been obscured by various causes including the stagnation in the export trade and the abnormal activity in the imports into India of foreign goods.

"An opportunity of reconsidering the whole question has presented itself on the passing into law at the recent session of the Legislative Council of the India Coinage Act rating the sovereign at Rs. 10, and the Government of India have accordingly with the approval of the Secretary of State decided after the sale of the 28th September to withdraw for the present and until further notice the present weekly offer of Sterling drafts on London. The Government of India, however, reserve to themselves the right of resuming these sales should circumstances in their opinion at any time subsequently render such resumption expedient."

MADRAS LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION BILL DISCUSSED.

(Associated Press.)

MADRAS, Sept. 28.

H. E. the Governor who arrived here to-day from Ootacamund presided over a meeting of the Madras Legislative Council which was held at Victoria Buildings, Egmore. There was a large attendance of members present. The session is quite interesting and an important one in as much as there are no fewer than seven bills on the agenda to be discussed and disposed of. In response to the Governor's appeal not to burden the agenda with resolutions, the Hon. Members had limited their number to six which will probably be disposed of at the end of the session.

To-day at the outset the council passed a resolution on the motion of Sir P. S. Jagopalachariar recording the council's deep sense of loss in the death of Hon. Raja of Bobbili who died a short time ago and conveying sympathy to the bereaved family.

The Hon. Venkatapathi Raju had moved for leave to introduce a bill to amend the Madras Impartible Estates Act 1904, but owing to the opposition raised by some non-official members to the bill being introduced at present as it was not a very urgent measure, the mover did not press the motion further.

The Hon. Mr. Davidson moved that the full operation of rules in respect of report of select committee on Madras Elementary Education Bill 1920 be suspended. The motion being carried he further moved that the bill and Select Committee's report on the same be taken into consideration. The motion being carried the council proceeded to discuss the amendments relating thereto.

EDUCATIONAL COUNCIL.

There are about 149 amendments on the agenda relating to various clauses of the Elementary Education Bill. Chapter second of the bill provided for the constitution of a district educational council consisting of the president and such number of members as Government might prescribe and that Government might appoint one of the members of the educational council as its president or might authorise it to elect its own president from among its own members subject to Government's approval. It also provided that the Governor in council might revoke such authority on previous intimation of grounds of such revocation, etc. There was heated discussion on such clauses. The opinion was expressed that the provisions would tend to make the educational council an official body and would deprive it of its popular character. It was also urged that local bodies should not be brought under the district educational council. The amendment asking for the omission of chapter second was lost. 21 voting against the motion and only 8 for it.

SHIKARPUR MASS MEETING.

DECIDES ON BOYCOTT OF COUNCILS.

(From a Correspondent.)

SHIKARPUR, Sept. 28.

A mass public meeting of over five thousand people was held at Shikarpur at which Dr. Chanraj presided. The following resolutions were unanimously passed.

In view of the resolution of the Special Congress at Calcutta that the reformed councils be boycotted, no voter should vote and none should stand as a candidate. This meeting therefore resolves to follow it and urges candidates in Sindh and outside to withdraw their candidature and also requests all the voters not to vote for any candidate. This meeting request the Shikarpur Panchayat to reconsider and cancel the resolution passed in its previous night's meeting about council elections as it is against the decision of the Congress and the citizens' opinion." The resolution was passed unanimously, although most of the Panchayat members were present.

BOMBAY LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

INTERPELLATIONS.

THE HON. MR. D. V. BELVI, LL.B.

Q. (a) (i) Will Government be pleased to state if their attention has been drawn to a letter from Mr. R. M. Sane of Barsi under the heading "Government Servants and Ryots' money" published on page 2 of the "Kesari" newspaper in its issue of the 15th June 1920? (ii) if so, are the allegations made in the letter correct? (iii) if not, what are the real facts of the case? (b) to lay on the Council table copies of the orders issued by Mr. Simcox to the Mamlatdars in the Sholapur District about the collection of funds for the erection of dharmashalas at Pandharpur? (c) (i) to state what is the total amount collected and what is the exact amount of money now lying in the office of each Mamlatdar in the Sholapur District? (c) (ii) if receipts have been regularly and officially passed to subscribers to the fund? (c) (iii) if duplicate copies of the receipts are available at present? (c) (iv) what is intended to be done with the money? (c) (v) if any interest is running on the money now lying in Government Treasuries?

A. (a) (i), (ii), (iii) These have already been replied to. (b) No orders were issued by Mr. Simcox to the Mamlatdars in the Sholapur District for the collection of funds beyond sending them the printed appeal a copy of which is placed on the Council Table. (c) (i) The total amount collected is Rs. 42,327-11-3. No money remains with any Mamlatdar in the Sholapur District, as they were asked to stop collections and send the money collected to Mr. V. N. Jakkal, Honorary Secretary of the Committee. (c) (ii), (iii) The sums received by the Collector and Mamlatdar were all acknowledged. Printed receipts were given in these cases where money received direct. Their counterfoils are available. In some cases typed receipts were given and their duplicates are not available. For money collected in villages in many cases manuscript receipts were passed by kulkarnis and their duplicates are available. No receipts seem to have been passed in the few cases where money was collected by Panchas. In some villages only lists of subscribers were kept and are available, no individual receipts being given. (c) (iv) The money is intended to be spent for the comfort of pilgrims coming to Pandharpur and especially in building Serais for them. (c) (v) None of the money is in any Government Treasury. Rs. 42,000 are deposited in the Bank of Bombay, Sholapur Branch, as a fixed deposit at 4 per cent., and the remainder, Rs. 327-11-3 is kept in the current account.

Q. Will Government be pleased to state—(a) if the attention of Government has been drawn to stray note No. 4 published on page 3 of the issue of the "Raja-Hansa" newspaper dated the 19th July 1920 complaining against oppressive prosecutions under the Indian Forest Act, 1878, against whole villages in the Mundgod Mahal and the Kalghatgi Taluka of the Dharwar District? (b) whether the allegations made in the said newspaper are true and accurate? (c) if not, what are the real facts? (d) how many men and women in the Dharwar District were prosecuted under the said Act during the year ending with the 30th June 1920 and how many of them were convicted? (e) what was the total amount of fines imposed on the accused persons that were convicted under the said Act during the aforesaid period of time in the Dharwar District? (f) the total number of persons that have yet to be put on their trial under the said Act in the said district?

A. The facts are as follows:—(b) and (c). A fire broke out in the forest of Kalghatgi village but the villagers did not help to put it out although the forest subordinates called on them to do so. Orders were therefore passed to prosecute the people who were bound to help but did not do so. Shortly afterwards the Conservator of Forests, Southern Circle, received a petition from the villagers complaining against the hardship of being prosecuted. On going through the papers the Conservator found that the fire occurred on bazaar day and that the absentees were 183 in number. In the circumstances he withdrew the prosecution and ordered that application should be made to the Collector for enhancement of grazing fees of the cattle belonging to the people who did not help. The same procedure was followed in another case in which a much smaller number of people was implicated. The people were liable to prosecution in both cases, but the cases were dropped as a matter of clemency. (d) 70 prosecuted, 37 convicted. (e) Rs. 338 2-0. (f) 65.

Q. Will Government be pleased to state—(a) what is the present establishment of the office of the Director of Information? (b) what is the monthly salary of the Director himself? (c) what is the total amount spent for his establishment every month for pay and other allowances? (d) what is the number at present of honorary correspondents in the Presidency? (e) is the expenditure on this establishment sanctioned in the Budget?

A. (a) The present establishment of the office of the Director of Information consists of:—

1. Junior Superintendent Rs. 250—20—350.
2. Senior Clerk and Shorthand Typist Rs. 200—20—300
3. Shorthand typist Rs. 120—10—150.

(e) A lump provision of Rs. 36,000 has been made in the current year's Budget for expenditure on account of the appointment of Director of Information and his establishment.

Q. Will Government be pleased (a) to put on the table a statement showing the amount spent by the Bombay Port Trust on building residential quarters for their staff since 1st April 1918? (b) to say how many more residential quarters the Port Trust has still got to build for their staff (superior and labouring) and why the work has not been taken in hand till now on a larger scale in this direction? (c) to say when the Port Trust expects to complete the quarters for the whole of the Bombay Port Trust staff and the approximate expense for the same?

A. (a) The amount expended by the Trustees on building residential quarters for their staff since 1st April 1918 is:—Superior staff Rs. 12,86,233; Menial staff Rs. 8,37,527; Total Rs. 21,23,760. (b) The Trustees in July 1918 considered the housing question very fully and laid down the following standard percentage for quarters to be provided for their employees:—

Permanent staff. Superior 50 per cent.
Permanent staff. Inferior 100 per cent.
Temporary staff (including workmen and dock labour). According to the number in regular employ required to be housed near their work. The number of quarters provided up to date or under construction is—
Superior staff Number employed 1,989; Number for whom quarters (a) have been or (b) are being constructed (a) 367 plus (b) 52 equals 419.
Inferior (average number including workmen and dock labour). Number employed 13,275; Number for whom quarters (a) have been or (b) are being constructed (a) 3,826 plus (b) 1,720 equals 5,546. The Trustees are dealing with the housing of their staff on a liberal scale. Up to date they have expended approximately Rs. 40½ lakhs on providing quarters. During the current year they have provided for a total expenditure of Rs. 19,37,000 on staff quarters and at the present moment they have under construction or are about to commence quarters for 52 superior and 1,720 inferior employees. (c) It is not possible to say by what date quarters will be provided for the whole of Port Trust staff or to state the approximate amount to be expended on quarters. The number of persons employed by the Trustees is increasing each year in proportion to the development of the Trust's operations and it is therefore impossible to foresee the number of quarters that will have to be provided. For the present the Trustees intend to work up to the programme laid down in 1918 and an annual provision will be made in their Capital Budget on those lines.

(f) the time he sits in his court?

A. (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) Time does not permit of collecting the detailed information asked for by the Hon. Member. Government however have no reason to believe that Khan Bahadur Husseinkhan Dhanekhan is otherwise than efficient in the discharge of his magisterial duties.

TO CURE SLEEPLESSNESS WITHOUT DRUGS.

A READER'S COMMON-SENSE ADVICE.

The enormously increased sales and soaring prices of opiates and "sleeping powders" since the war began prove that this dangerous drug-taking has become habitual to an appalling extent. Insomnia, like headache, is always directly due to high blood pressure and congestion of blood in the head. The Brain remains too active, so too much blood rushes through its veins, and sleep becomes impossible. The usual procedure is to depress the heart action with drugs, and thus slacken the circulation (the heart must always slow down in sleep) so high blood pressure and throbbing therefore stops. This is done by taking bromides, acetanilide, etc.

A few weeks ago my wife's insomnia nearly drove her insane, and bromides always caused numbness and palpitation. Then she was attacked by acute articular rheumatism. To help this latter she took hot baths for a few nights just before retiring, and in the water dissolved a tablespoonful of refined Reudel Bath Saltrates, which any chemist can supply. A half-pound is fully sufficient even the worst cases. These saltrate baths soon stopped her rheumatic pains, and they entirely cured her insomnia too. Her doctor explained that the hot saltrates water expands the surface blood vessels, thereby slackening the circulation slightly and drawing excess of blood from the brain. Also it soothes the nerves, and by relieving all congestion quickly stops any discomfort or restlessness, so sleep always follows the moment you lie down. In this way the bath safely does all that dangerous opiates, etc., possibly could, and there can be no bad reaction. Take my tip, tear this out, and next time avoid dangerous drugs for insomnia. You can quickly cure it by following my advice.—D.L.C.

POSTAL STRIKE.

WHAT STRIKERS AND THEIR LEADERS SAY.

SHETHIA DONATES RS. 13,000 TO FUND.

The "Jame-e-Jamshed" says that, according to the statements made by the postmen they are prepared to meet postal authorities half way, and if the Conference between their leaders and the authorities fail they are quite willing to put the matter before arbitrators. One of the representatives of the paper, on interviewing one of the headmen of the strikers, was told that the ending of the strike lay with the press primarily. If the press, backed by the businessman and the voice of the general public, takes up cudgels on our behalf right earnestly, the authorities could not but yield to it and grant the strikers their just demands. The authorities know fully well that our demands, which are just will have to be met, sooner or later, either in toto or partially, then what earthly use is there, enquired the headman of lengthening the strike and making huge and unnecessary expenditure daily. If the authorities are under the impression that they could break the strike by unduly prolonging it, they are sadly mistaken. The strikers, to a man, are unanimous. They would rather work as coolies than continue their present duties on the wages they get. Besides they have got the whole hearted support of many well-known public leaders in whom they have the greatest confidence. A fund is started for the help of strikers in which good sums are being subscribed. The most noticeable feature of this is that one kind hearted She hia has given a handsome donation of Rs. 13,000.

One of the leaders of the strikers, who was also interviewed, corroborated the statements of the headman referred to above and added that the postmen have served the public and businessmen and trades well, and it is up to the latter to bestir atonce in behalf of the poor strikers who have been forced to resort to the last weapon of redress, in absence of a living wage. It is undesirable fact that the prices of most of the necessities of life had shewn increases by 100, 200 and in some instance 300 percentages. Were the increases proposed to be given to the strikers commensurete with such increases in prices? "I challenge the authorities to prove this," added the leader. It is stupid to say, as some allege, that the working people in Bombay resort to strike just because they, during the last few years, have succeeded in their aims. The wearer knows where the shoe pinches. The workmen, when they and their family can no longer bear the pangs of hunger, take this extreme course, quite unwillingly knowing fully well that they will forfeit the wages of the days of the strike.

WHY NOT SETTLE THE STRIKE.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—The strike is causing considerable inconvenience to almost all the citizens of this greatest business place of India. Delivery centres are mostly useless. It would be better to have a few well organized delivery centres than so many as at present. According to the present system numbers of letters must be going astray and torn off every day. People who want to get their post have to sweat wet in the midst of unruly crowds where everyone is anxious to get hold of a big bunch of letters and throw off after looking at it for his own purposes. Any way, this sort of system can not—and does not—do any good to the general public; on the contrary, it works to their disadvantage. And it high time for them to raise their voice against the attitude of the Postal authorities. Every one of us should use his utmost influence to bring about a settlement of the strike favourable to the poor hard workers, with the least possible delay.—Yours, etc.

THE LOST LETTER.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—I shall thank you if you will kindly publish the following in your widely circulated paper.

The postal strike is in full swing now; both sides are very obstinate; but whatever the merits of the case may be, I should like to point out—and ask you to help us in ventilating our grievances—to what an enormous inconvenience we residents in Kalbadevi are put by the intentional negligence of the postal authorities. Heaps of letters are thrown on the otla of a house near Fanaswadi without there being any responsible officer (either Postal or Police) to take care of those letters, as if some rubbish had to be cleared off. Even letters thrown at the notified centres the Postal officers do not care to see that they go to the right places. A letter addressed to me was found by a friend from Girgaum section, and I am awaiting receipt of many important letters which are either missing or at any rate not to be found in the particular section. I understand that soon after the strike is over, the postal authority will either burn or destroy all letters not delivered during the strike. If that is so, what a calamity will it be to all the citizens of Bombay who have so long suffered very patiently all the inconveniences of the strike. Why the postal authorities should not take particular trouble to see that all letters are properly delivered in the Fort, and leave the unfortunate citizens living outside the Fort in the lurch is a problem beyond my comprehension. If such a procedure were adopted in England, I should like to know what the result would be.—Yours, etc.

KALBADEVI POST OFFICE.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—Will you kindly publish the following in your paper?

The Kalbadevi Post Office is situated on the ground floor of one of the buildings in the Morarji Velji Wadi. The Post Office has a public passage on the other side. Notwithstanding the fact that the Kolbhat Lane side of the Wadi is being blocked by the police and the gate of the Wadi is closed by the police and admission is for since 2 days allowed at the caprice of the sepoy on the gate. The Wadi contains not only the Post Office Building but two other buildings too. The tenants number about five hundred. Besides, there are business offices and cloth godowns. It is very difficult to get deliveries of cloth cases from the godowns because the gate is closed by the police and even the godown clerks and their coolies are not admitted without difficulties and harrassment. The office brokers and clerks have to undergo great inconvenience and trouble and women and children and school boys of the residents of the whole Wadi have to suffer harrassment the whole day. I fail to understand why the gates are closed at all. If they want, let the police guard the post office doors but why should they trouble others unnecessarily. Perhaps it is police efficiency or Postal efficiency which is responsible for this nuisance.—Yours, etc.,

BALUBHAI KURJI.

WHY NO SPECIAL ALLOWANCE FOR BOMBAY CITY.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—I read in your paper very recently that a surcharge of one pie per letter may as well be imposed on all letters emanating from Bombay and with this amount the postmen and the menial staff of the Postal and Telegraph Dept. may be paid something to alleviate their present conditions. When the postal Department is making a huge profit everywhere and has raised or revised the fee for all sorts of correspondence it is only but proper that they should pay the menial staff and the postmen of this city some thing more in the shape of a special allowance for this city. This while raising their emoluments will not be drawn as a comparison by the other cities like Madras and Calcutta. When special conditions of localities require special concessions to be given it is only but proper that the department should grant the concession as a special allowance and not take shelter under the plea that other provinces will ask for the same concession. Recently the Postal Department has made the registration of V. P. Parcels compulsory. This means they have levied a duty on all parcels that are sent "V. P. P." When they are so very careful to devise means to increase the revenue in all possible directions there is no reason why the public of Bombay should be asked to pay one pie extra for all letters that emanates from this city. It is the bounden duty of the Department to support the men by whose sweat of brow they are able to make such a huge profit every year.

TRIAL OF MAULVI ZAFAR ALI KHAN.

EXAMINATION OF PROSECUTION WITNESSES.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LAHORE, Sept. 27.

Before Mr. A. McMitchell, Special Magistrate, the adjourned hearing of the case against Maulvi Zafar Ali Khan, Editor of "Zemindar" who stands charged with offences under sections 124 A and 153 A I. P.C. was resumed to-day. The court room was packed with people who had come to watch the proceedings and at times the rush of the crowd was so great that several window panes and glasses were broken. When Maulvi Zafar Ali Khan who was without handcuffs entered the court room the people greeted him with shouts of "Alla Ho Akbar." The shouts continued for several minutes and it was with a little difficulty that the people were silenced. The accused was given a chair and then he took his seat.

Before the proceedings began the Magistrate asked the accused whether he was going to defend himself and whether any lawyers were appearing for him. The accused said "I plead "not guilty" and would not defend myself. I have not engaged any counsel. After the prosecution has framed the charges against me, I will make a statement."

The court then proceeded to record the evidence of the prosecution witnesses. Mr. Ikramul Huq was the first witness examined by Sardar Mehtab Singh, Public Prosecutor. Witness said he had filed a complaint against the accused at the order of superior authorities. He had no personal knowledge of the speeches delivered by the accused. He had collected materials for the charges against the accused from reports of his speeches.

At this stage the Magistrate asked the accused whether he wanted to cross-examine the witnesses.

Accused said:—I don't want to cross-examine anybody.

After several other prosecution witnesses had given evidence the court adjourned.

DR. S. RANGASWAMI IYENGAR

"DIABETES SPECIALIST."

RARE AND INVALUABLE SPECIFIC FOR THE CURE OF "DIABETES."

After a short visit to the Madras Presidency on professional work Dr. S. RANGASWAMI IYENGAR, the well-known Diabetes Specialist has RETURNED TO BOMBAY and will be glad to treat "DIABETES" suffering patients.

During the short stay he has made here before he has treated and has completely cured many persons of whom the following are a few:—

KANYALAL BADRIDAS, a Cotton Merchant, Bombay writes:—

"It gives me great pleasure in testifying to the real efficacy of Dr. S. R. Iyengar's medicinal drugs. I was suffering from "Diabetes" for the last 12 years—Commenced Dr. Iyengar's treatment—my urine was examined by the Bombay Municipal Analyst the Sp. Gravity was 1037 and sugar 5-62 per cent. After treatment, the examination of the same Municipal Analyst; and Dr. N. H. Clubwala M. D. B. Hy. (Bombay) at Dr. Masina Hospital Pathological Laboratory "Sugar was found nil" and Sp. Mr. BHAILAL V. KHOTHARI, B.A., LL.B., Vakil, High Court, Bombay, writes:—

"It gives me great and sincere pleasure in testtifying to the real efficacy of Dr. S. R. Iyengar's medical drugs. I was suffering from Diabetes for over 4 years and had tried many well-known doctors of Bombay but without any effect. I then put myself under the treatment of the said Doctor Iyengar and he prescribed a course of 7 complete weeks for me. As each week progressed the disease that could not at all be controlled before, began to abate with the result that I was completely cured at the end of the course, in such a marvellous way that I can very well say that Dr. Iyengar is not a diabetes specialist in name but a specialist indeed in reality. My Sp. Gr. which was 1038 in the beginning of the course came down to 1015 at the end and grains of sugar per ounce of urine fell down from 24 to nil while sediments were not at all visible.

Your Breakfast Coffee will be a real joy—if you prepare half-and-half with hot, rich Glaxo —the milk with the real English flavour.

Glaxo is the rich milk of British-bred dairy cows from which the water has been removed by the Glaxo Process. This process presents the nourishing solids of the milk in the form of a dry powder, which, packed in a parchment bag inside an airtight sealed tin, comes to you across the seas with all its freshness and flavour unimpaired.

All you have to do is to add boiling water only (a half-pint to three dessertspoonfuls of Glaxo). Mix as much as you require when you require it—the rest will keep for a considerable period, if the tin be kept tightly closed and in a cool place.

Dear Mr. Noel,

Its just four months since I last took up your course of physical training and I am glad to say I have benefitted immensely by it.

I could first lift up only 80 pounds, but now I can jerk up 175 pounds with ease. All my muscles have been indeed ably developed and I would recommend your system to all those in need of muscle and a symetrical figure. Thanking you for all the good you have done me.

I Remain,
Yours Sincerely.
